Good News Letter

Published in the Cause of the Abundant Life by the First Baptist Church 101 North Franklin Street, Delaware, OH 43015•740-363-7021•www.FBCDelaware.org

The theologian Augustine is well-known for much more than having a city in Florida named after him. He guided the Church through the difficulties associated with the fall of the Roman Empire. He lived through the chaos and tragedy of it all. One has a hard time imagining what that part of his life must have been like; what it was like to be a pastor, or a believer, in a time of such trauma.

And yet he was able to advance a theological tradition that has been greatly influential even in our times, more that 1500 years later. It has been known as, "Augustinian," which doesn't really help us know very much what it was all about. It was influenced by Paul, and even earlier than that, by the prophets of Israel, namely Isaiah.

It was heavy on God's sovereignty and the majesty and grace of God. Having turned into a theological system, it was studied by the great Protestant reformers like Martin Luther and John Calvin; thus, it is another name for our theology, as we are among the heirs of the Protestant traditions.

It has its greatest influence over us in times of distress and uncertainty, if not of full-out loss, such as in times like the decline and fall of a civilization. Augustine did make some mistakes, of course, but I hope he can still be seen for his larger contributions to the life of faith.

All of this fuss I have made, in fact, is just to offer, as a kind of prayer, what is one of the best reflections of Augustine's life, a couple of sentences that seem to fit the noisiness and uncertainties of our lives. I hope these famous sentences will bring some comfort and peace, as well as guidance, no matter where your life finds you, or at least something to ponder in these waning summer days.

They come from the beginning of his, Confessions, which is a spiritual autobiography. Augustine writes;

"Great art Thou, O Lord, and greatly to be praised; great is Thy power, and of Thy wisdom there is no end. . . . for Thou hast formed us for Thyself, and our hearts are restless till they find rest in Thee."

May it be so for each of you, Mark

Mission/Outreach News

Thanks to all who have contributed money for shoes for school to People In Need in July. Imagine the smiles on the children's faces as they receive a new pair of shoes to start school!

Thanks to all who have brought school supplies to help children at Conger Elementary School get a great start to their school year!

Thanks to everyone who has brought food items for People In Need during the month of July and throughout the year. There is continuous need for food in Delaware.

It was good to fellowship as we enjoyed the pot luck luncheon on Sunday, July 24th. Thanks to Dr. Allison for introducing the missionaries we are considering to give monetary support.

Jeni Pedzinski, missionary to Thailand, to whom we give monetary support is hoping to come to our church in November. We will be making plans to welcome her.

Our August outreach will continue to be collecting food items for People In Need.
We will also give a $100.00 donation to the Common Ground Free Store as we have in the past.

As you are shopping, keep in mind that in September we will be asking you to donate new underwear for our Undie Sundays. Also, it is a good time to think ahead to buy items for the Christmas shoe boxes, as school items are on sale.

Panera Pick Up Continues

Each Thursday, someone from our congregation goes to Panera at 8:45 p.m. to pick up the items from the day that have not been purchased, then rebag items for easy distribution by Andrews House. The items are then taken to Andrews Hour at 9:30 a.m. on Friday morning. People are very grateful to have bread. A huge thank you to everyone who keeps this outreach going.

Historical Organ Society

Our church is pleased to be chosen to host the Historical Organ Society on August 1st. Each year the society celebrates historic pipe organs though a convention in North America. This year they are visiting organs in Ohio. The Seventh Day Adventist Church organ is also part of the tour.

Members of the society are the guest organists at churches and they give lectures, demonstrations, and recitals. Stephen Price, who is the Assistant Teaching Professor at Ball State University will be playing our organ for the members of the convention. His recital will be on Monday afternoon (time-to be announced).

If you would like more information, see Peter White or Mary Lou Lovell.

Organ Repair

On July 11th, Ryan and Taylor came from Mueller Organ company to repair and tune the organ. They worked from 9:30- !:30. Six of the large wooden pedal pipes needed to be taken out to repair the broken tracker.

Consider Online Giving

Our online giving website screens have changed. When you "click" on the link to donate, the donation screen has a new "look":

You are presented with separate boxes for each of the giving areas: General Fund, Missions, Capital Improvements, Memorials, Benevolence, and Special Giving as well as one of the ABC Special quarterly offerings.

When you click on "donate" in one of the areas, you can enter an amount, a frequency, and a starting date.

On the next screen, you can choose to give by credit or debit card, or electronically from a checking or savings account. After entering your name and address, you can process your giving and save your profile to simplify future online giving.

If you need assistance in the process, please contact me at lfaulk01@aol.com or 614-204-1098. Your gifts to FBC are appreciated.

-Larry Faulk, treasurer

Interested in Membership?

There are several ways in which you can join our fellowship:

- 1 By profession of faith and baptism
- 2 By a transfer from a sister Baptist congregation
- 3 By a statement of faith from other Christian faith traditions

We are mindful that some who wish to be a part of the FBC family life may not be interested in formal membership. Please don't feel any pressure. For those who are interested, mention it to Dr. Allison, and he will be happy to answer any questions you may have. Then in a worship service where there can be a formal affirmation, we will present your decision to join.

- Larry Faulk, deacon chairperson

Sermon Manuscripts Available

If you would like to read some of Dr. Allison's sermons, they are available on our website. There are currently manuscripts for the past six months online. Others will be added soon.
