PRAYER OF MEDITATION

Living Christ, your earthly ministry was full of struggle as well as joy; yet you were faithful in following God's will. Breathe your Spirit into our lives, that we will never fall back from the way of discipleship or the effort of loving. Grant that we may find true joy and peace as we accept the cost of faithful discipleship. For it is in your name we pray. Amen.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

During this Lenten time of reflection, O God, we would work to overcome the temptation to live only for ourselves. Make us increasingly aware of the others who also travel in this temporary world. As did Jesus, we can carry one another's load. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

INTROIT

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let all who have faced temptation worship God.

Weary of the battle, we long for rest and God's renewing strength.

Let all who have succumbed to temptation worship God.

Ready for forgiveness, we open ourselves to God in worship and resolve to live by God's empowering Word.

CALL TO WORSHIP

It is an awesome thing to stand in the presence of God, to call God's holy name.

As far as the heavens are above the earth, God's ways are above our ways.

But we come with confidence, because in Christ we are called to be God's people.

Come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before God our Maker!

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
Let us make a joyful noise to God with songs of praise.
For God is our rock, who leads us in the wilderness,
And meets us at the well,
Who sustains us in the desert
And knows our heart's great need.
God is our rock, the wellspring of all that is good.
ALL: Come, let us drink deeply, let us worship God.

WORDS FOR MEDITATION

There are truths that even the eyes cannot see. Within the soul there is a spiritual vision that helps us discern the true from the false, the right from the wrong, the joyful from the joyless, and the healers from the destroyers. The blind man in today's gospel had that inner vision. He also had the courage to bear witness to the one who had helped him see.

Do we?

CALL TO WORSHIP

There have been hours of confusion this week.

And hours of clarity.

There have been moments of darkness.

And moments when the light lifted the darkness.

There was time when our vision was dim.

And time when we could see things clearly.

We know all spiritual vision comes from God.

ALL: Come, let us worship the one who gives us eyes to see what is most important.

CALL TO WORSHIP

We are gathered in the presence of God, who asks us to choose between life and death, blessing and curse.

We are gathered like the people of Israel, who were challenged to choose the way of life.

Like them, we often follow the ways of death.

Yet, like them, we have the freedom each day to begin anew by the grace of God.

By our presence here, we are saying that we want to choose life one more time.

ALL: Let us praise the God of love and life who has called us to this place.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

10:45 a.m.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

Even on Easter, we have trouble keeping our minds focused on "things that are above." Sights of beautiful clothes, old friends, visitors and signs of Spring take our thoughts away from the wonder of Christ's resurrection. We start thinking about plans for our afternoon activities while listening to biblical accounts of Christ's victory over death. This is too important to miss, God. Enable us to give all of our attention to the meaning of the astounding announcement that Christ is alive. Amen

ORDER OF WORSHIP

10:45 a.m.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

God, at times we wonder if we just dreamed all the news of resurrection, promise, and Christ's presence. Most days it seems too good to be true. Keep us in touch with the bounty of your goodness in the world, the vitality of your Spirit, and the reality of the resurrection life. When our trust grows weak and our hope wavers, let us see again with the eyes of true faith the splendor of your sovereign love and the majesty of your resurrection power. More than that, help us live daily in the light that emanates from the empty tomb. Amen.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

Shepherd God, we desire a place in the fold where your sheep find rest. Left to ourselves, we lose our way, get in trouble, experience needless pain, suffer from loneliness, and grieve over an absence of hope. We will to be obedient servants of Christ, sheep that enter the fellowship of your fold through the gate of his redemption. As members of your flock, make us submissive to your will, responsive to your call, and faithful in our fellowship of the one who promises abundant life. Amen.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

10:45 a.m.

Welcome to First Baptist Church. We are glad to have you worshipping with us this morning. On this Communion Sunday, we invite all who believe in Christ to join us in our celebration at the table.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We gather before you, God, thankful that you receive us when we come to you. Skillfully, through your Spirit's fire, find the places where we hurt and shine on them with healing light. Find the places where we run from you and gather us home. Then mold us, shape us, make us one as the grains on many hillsides become one loaf, one bread, one body in Jesus Christ. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Come, let us worship Almighty God.

Let us lift up our songs, our prayers, our praises.

Come, let us honor Christ Jesus.

Let us love Christ with our hearts, our minds, our spirits.

Come, let us be filled with the Spirit of the living God.

Breathe in us, Breath of God. Alleluia.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

10:00 a.m.

Welcome to First Baptist Church. We are glad to have you worshipping with us this morning. On this Communion Sunday, we invite all who believe in Christ to join us in our celebration at the table.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We come as Peter with deliberate faith. We come as Peter with a surprising absence of faith. Despite the human, mercurial nature of our faith, Gracious God, we also confess, "Jesus, truly you are the Son of God." Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

We have encountered the Word, calling us into communion with God and with each other,

And calling us into discipleship to carry on Christ's work in our world.

So we come together here, joining hands in the great quest:

To worship God, to love each other, and to serve the world.

CALL TO WORSHIP

With two or three gathered in Christ's name,

We enter this place of worship to meet God.

With two or three gathered in Christ's name,

We expand our capacity to love.

Where two or three are gathered,

We witness truth together.

All: Where two or three are gathered in Christ's name, God is here among us.

CALL TO WORSHIP

The wisdom of the Lord belongs to those who will seek God's will!

Then let us lift our prayers to the Lord that we might have God's wisdom.

Seek God's will in both the great things and the small.

We will seek God's will in all we are about day in and day out.

For the more God's light shines in us the greater is God's blessing.

Blessed be the name of the Lord!

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

Today, Lord, is a day that we feast on your amazing grace. Like the Hebrews of old, we too wander in the wilderness of our own making. Sometimes we seem to make life more complicated than it needs to be. Our priorities are out of kilter and we need to ground ourselves in the holiness that you have shown us. In our congregation and community, there are many people who are lonely, hungry and alienated from life and loved ones. Where we can be conduits of your mercy, help us gain the vision and discernment necessary to carry the life-changing power of the gospel to these. As we worship this day, may you provide for us a new vision of your kingdom and give us the courage to be your people. In the name of the crucified one, we pray, Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

On this day we gather in oneness with our brothers and sisters to celebrate God's gifts.

We hear the call to rekindle our spirits and to receive strength for our common tasks.

On this day we will share the bread and cup, which are symbols of God's power and love.

We will open our hearts to accept these gifts, seeking the grace to walk in God's ways.

INTROIT "Change Our World"

CALL TO WORSHIP

Come, let us worship the god who has given us the promise of a kingdom where love and peace, justice and joy, are for everyone.

Thy Kingdom come.

Come, let us worship the God who challenges us to live as faithful disciples, following in the way of Jesus to share God's love and peace, justice and joy, with everyone.

Thy will be done.

Come, let us celebrate the great hope that God's kingdom will come, that God's will shall be done.

On earth as it is in heaven.

Come, let us open our hearts to receive, let us lift our voices to proclaim, the great and wondrous news: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven!"

Amen! Amen!

MEDITATION

The Christian life is not so much a destination as a journey. Even so the worship of God is not to be found solely in the gathering of this people of faith nor in their acts of worship or faithful service. But true worship is found in sharing these moments when we sense God's presence, and in celebrating those moments together with joy. Let us worship God.

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship the eternal God, the Source of Love and life, who creates us.

Let us worship Jesus Christ, the Risen One, who lives among us.

Let us worship the Spirit, the Holy Fire, who renews us.

ALL: To the one true god be praise in all times and places, through the grace of Jesus Christ!

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We gather today for worship not simply as the people assembled here in this place on this occasion. We also gather with those who have occupied these places with us in the past, though they are with us on earth no longer. And we gather as well with those who formed the church long before it ever to be known in this place. We are united in communion with the saints. In their memory and in their presence, we gather as the living body of Christ. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

There are many who have walked the path toward God before us, showing us the way with their lives.

We come to give thanks for them.

As they were called, so are we called to live as Jesus did, answering the call of God, saying, "Here I am! Send me."

We come to ask for guidance and courage.

We are, each of us, like those who have gone before us, a strange mixture of saint and sinner. God accepts us that way and fills us with the Spirit, who empowers us to act.

We come to worship the Holy God.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Our God is Alpha and Omega.

We are a people of many beginnings and endings.

Sovereign God who is and was and is to come is the Almighty.

Within God's time we each find our little times—our memories, our concerns for today, our hopes for the future.

This is the hour we set aside to worship God in deep reverence through great praise.

With our hearts and our minds, with our reason and our spirit, we rejoice in God's presence with us here and find ourselves within God's presence.

HYMN: Joy to the World #120

GREETINGS

Today we come together to prepare for the birthday of a King.

Today we make ready our welcome for God's only Son, Jesus of Nazareth

We continue this special and holy season of Advent, the season of going toward the coming of Christ.

As we renew the special memory of the Advent Season, the season of going toward new hope and eternal life.

Let us clear our minds and open our hearts to the coming of our King.

Let us honor his birth by adorning our church for the coming of our King.

Let our songs and symbols represent our personal rededication to the glory of God and the manifestation of his love through his Son Jesus Christ.

For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

10:45 a.m.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

O people of God, why do you lament the little faith of your neighbors? Are you not overlooking those collecting blood for the victims of disaster, and those turning unused buildings into shelters for the homeless? And are you not also overlooking those joining hands to fight oppression, and those sending medicine to the most diseased corners of the earth? Forgive us, O Lord, for sitting in judgment. Judgment belongs to the Lord. Forbid that we should seek to play the role of judge, O God, that we might perform the role of servant.

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: As we come together today, O Lord, we are tossed to and fro on waves of fear and doubt.

P: O Calmer of troubled waters, let us hear again your reassuring word, "Take heart, it is I; have no fear."

L: As we come together today, O Lord, we are driven here and there by winds of ambition and pride.

P: O Healer of troubled souls, let us hear again your reassuring words, "Take heart, it is I; have no fear."

ALL: Come, Lord Jesus, and bless our worship with the gift of your presence, that we may find peace for our anxious hearts and meaning for our troubled lives. Amen.

In 1994 LeRoy and Marian Jordan moved to a suburb of Atlanta, Georgia, after 36 years of ministry at the First Baptist Church of North Tulsa, Oklahoma. LeRoy's pastorate was the longest in the church's history. In recognition of his outstanding service, the church made him pastor emeritus. During their years in Tulsa, Marian also provided leadership by serving on the church's Board of Christian Education.

"One of the things we feared was being forgotten, but people have kept in touch with us," LeRoy said, reflecting on their years of ministry. "One of the great things about our American Baptist family is the way retirees are remembered with an annual Thank You check. It makes us feel that we are valued and are not shoved into a corner."

LeRoy was one of the founders of American Baptist Churches of the South and served as president of that Region. In 1988 the LeRoy K. Jordan Plaza, a multi-racial housing complex in Tulsa for seniors, was dedicated.

In retirement the Jordans continue to be active in ministry and service. LeRoy and Marian teach Sunday School classes in their church in Atlanta.

There are many other retired ABC ministers and missionaries who continue to build up the body of Christ by providing loving care and spiritual support to those around them. Your gift to the Retired Ministers and Missionaries Offering (RMMO) is an opportunity to say thank you and to Rejoice in Their Ministry.

By making a generous contribution to the RMMO you can show over 3,000 ministers and missionaries, or their widowed spouses, that you are grateful for their years of ministry.
